

Open Government Data Conference and Data Camp

When: 8.30 am – 4.00 pm Friday 23 September 2011. The conference will be followed immediately by the Data Camp, from 4.00 – 6.00 pm

Where: Queensland University of Technology (QUT), Gardens Point Campus, Brisbane - Gibson Room, Z Block, Level 10 (for directions see map at <http://www.qut.edu.au/about/campuses-and-precincts/gardens-point>)

RSVP: online at <http://tiny.cc/OGDBrisbane>. If you have issues with registration, please contact Cheryl Foong at cheryl.foong@qut.edu.au.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Conference Chair: Professor Brian Fitzgerald (Professor of Intellectual Property and Innovation, QUT Law Faculty)

8.30 - 8.45am: Welcome: The Honourable Simon Finn (Minister for Government Services, Building Industry and Information and Communication Technology)

8.45 - 9.15am Professor Anne Fitzgerald (Professor of Law Research, QUT Law Faculty) - Setting the Scene: Towards an Australian information strategy

9.15 - 9.40am: Senator Kate Lundy (Parliamentary Secretary for Immigration and Citizenship, and Parliamentary Secretary to the Prime Minister) - Opening Keynote Address: The Path to Open Government

9.40 - 10.45am: International perspectives on Open Government Data policy and practice

9.40 - 10.10am Andrew Stott (Member of UK Transparency Board and formerly Director of Transparency, UK Government) - Open Data & Open Government implementation in the UK

10.10 - 10.30am Richard Best (New Zealand Government) – NZ Government policy and practice: NZGOAL

10.30 - 10.45am Questions and Discussion

10.45 - 11.15am – Morning Tea

(Continued overleaf)

Queensland University of Technology
Faculty of Law

11.15am - 1.00pm: Innovation Paradigm

11.15 - 11.45am Dr Terry Cutler (Cutler and Co) - Productivity dividends from Open Government

11.45 am - 12.20pm Claire Driscoll (Director, Technology Transfer Office, National Human Genome Research Institute, U.S. National Institutes of Health) - National Institutes of Health: Strategy and Policy on Open Knowledge for Real World benefits

12.20 - 12.45pm Keitha Booth (Programme Leader, NZ Open Government Data and Information Programme) - Open and Transparent Government: innovation opportunities

12.45 - 1.00pm Questions and Discussion

1.00 - 2.00pm - Lunch

2.00 - 3.30pm: Implementation and Case Studies

2.00 - 2.20pm Dr Graham Vickery (Information Economics, Paris; formerly OECD) – Policy and Principles (OECD) [Pre-recorded presentation]

2.20 - 2.50pm Neale Hooper (Technology and Licensing Lawyer, currently on secondment to QUT and Creative Commons Australia) – Implementation of Creative Commons Licences as a Driver of Open Access Policy and Practice in Australia

2.50 - 3.10pm James Kliemt (Queensland Police Service) - Emergency Response and Social Media

3.10 - 3.30pm Dr Mark Elliott (Collabforge) – Collaborating with the Crowd: online case studies for success

3.30 - 4.00pm – Afternoon tea

Queensland University of Technology
Faculty of Law

DATA CAMP

4.00 - 6.00pm

Several case studies will be presented, in flexible format. Conference attendees are very welcome to stay for this session.

Participants:

Anthony Baxter (Google Australia, Crisis Response)

Keitha Booth (Programme Leader, NZ Open Government Data and Information Programme)

Dr Lucy Craddock (Law lecturer, USC)

Mark Elliott (Collabforge)

James Kliemt (Queensland Police Service)

Andrew Stott (Member of UK Transparency Board and formerly Director of Transparency, UK Government)

Margaret Warren (Qld State Library, Libraryhack project)

Pia Waugh (Technology Advisor)

Andrew Woolf (Head, Climate and Water IT, Bureau of Meteorology) [pre-record]

Jimmi Ti (PhD candidate, QUT)

Queensland University of Technology
Faculty of Law